    <h2>About</h2>

      I am a Computer Science Engineering student specializing in AI &amp; ML, aspiring to become a Software Engineer and Full Stack Developer.
      I enjoy problem-solving, robotics engineering, and building innovative solutions that merge intelligence with technology. With strong observation skills and a logical mindset, I love tackling complex challenges and logic-based coding problems. Coding pushes me to constantly train my brain muscles and grow as a thinker.
